WHAT IS THE DORNSIFE COLLEGE?

When you choose the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences, you are choosing a degree program that gives you the freedom to explore your interests in ways that will better prepare you for the future. USC Dornsife College offers 180 majors and minors across 20 disciplines, from the arts to engineering.

The Application

The application deadline is February 1. Please visit the USC website or contact Academic Records and Registrar for more information.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO KNOW?

Transfer Admission Requirements

Recommended Courses for Admission

More information about the Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences can be found on the USC website. Please visit the Dornsife website for more information.

Transferring to USC brochure that can be found at: DORNSIFECOLLEGE.TRANSFER.USC.EDU/WEB/TRADE/2021

Additional course recommendations are available in the brochure for many majors. These recommendations are for students who wish to pursue a major at the USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. These recommendations are not required, but they may help you in your decision-making process.

Supplemental Question

We simply want to know why you want to pursue a major at USC Dornsife. Here are some tips on how to approach this question:

1. Think about your academic goals and how a major at USC Dornsife will help you achieve them.
2. Consider what you hope to learn from a major at USC Dornsife.
3. Reflect on how a major at USC Dornsife will contribute to your personal and professional development.

When you respond to the supplemental question, we encourage you to provide a brief (250 words or less) response. This response should be specific to your academic interests and personal goals.

For more information, please visit the USC website or contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.